

A F R I C A N
A C A D E M Y

Policies and Procedures

Language

Language Policy

- English is the medium of instruction and administration at the African Academy for Computer Assisted Engineering.
- English is an international language for communication in the drawing, draughting and related fields.
- English is both the medium of teaching and of assessment.
- On registration all applicants must have attained a certain level of proficiency in English as stipulated by the respective programme
- English is the language of internal governance and of administration within the African Academy.
- All English communication must be clear and concise and gender-sensitive.